Terms and Conditions of Business

1. Payment policy

1.1 A non-refundable deposit of £250.00 is payable to secure any booking. A subsequent deposit of £250.00 is required six weeks later. A provisional booking will be held for 48 hours pending payment. Should another enquiry be received after this time scale, your booking will be automatically released.

1.2 If in the event a 'low cost deposit' is negotiated at the time of booking, you should make regular payments within the first three months and should have paid at least £500.00 within this three month period.

1.3 A payment of 50% towards your total balance will be due three months before. The remaining balance is due four weeks before the function. The Station Hotel reserves the right to add a 10% charge to the amount outstanding as a late payment fee. This will be automatically added to your balance to cover the cost of administrating the credit. If full payment is not received before the function this may result in the function not going ahead and no reimbursements will be given.

1.4 Whilst every effort will be made to hold the prices as stated in this brochure, the hotel reserves the right to increase the prices should there be a significant increase in the rate of VAT, goods or services purchased by the hotel. No price increases will occur later than three months prior to the function.

1.5 Credit card payments will incur a surcharge of 2%. Cheques may not be used to cover final payments within six weeks prior to the function.

2. Insurance

2.1 You are asked to consider an insurance policy to indemnify yourself against financial loss in the unfortunate event of cancellation. Most banks/building societies offer this type of insurance.

3. Numbers

3.1 The ballroom can be booked for your function if there are a minimum of 40 adults attending. The ballroom can be booked for less people but you may still be charged for 40 adults.

3.2 For evening only functions a minimum of £250.00 room hire will be added to your balance. The price of room hire may reduce dependent on numbers and catering options.

3.3 A minimum of 90% of your guests must be catered for. The maximum seated capacity is 180 and 250 for theatre style or standing room only.

3.4 Your final numbers or items originally quoted for cannot decrease within the four weeks before the function. We must be notified of the final numbers four weeks before hand. If numbers do decrease or items removed from the original quote occur during this four week period the hotel reserves the right to charge at the original quote to cover any losses.

4. Amendments

4.1 The respective person must be notified immediately if any alterations or further requests are necessary. Amendments are required in writing or email addressed to your point of contact which you were given at the time of your initial consultation.

5. Minimum spend

5.1 The hotel often highlights a 'minimum spend' on your booking. This means that the hotel has accepted your booking on the understanding that you spend this agreed amount on pre-paid services. Should your numbers reduce or you downgrade your package and your spend falls short of the agreed threshold, you may be subject to pay the original amount set.

6. Third party companies

6.1 Whilst making arrangements for your special day you may require the services of certain third party companies for services that we do not offer at the Station Hotel. All such companies shall be required to submit a copy of their Public Liability Insurance certificates and a relevant PAT testing report if necessary to support any such electrical equipment

6.2 All equipment, materials and items provided by outside companies must be removed from our premises at the end of your function. If in the event that any items have been left overnight charges may apply. All materials and equipment used by third party companies must be approved by your wedding coordinator. Companies may contact us directly to make any additional arrangements.

7. Care of goods

7.1 All goods can be taken care of by the hotel on the evening of the wedding. Whilst absolute professional care is taken of all such goods, we regret the hotel cannot be held responsible for loss or damage to any items. Some wedding cakes in particular demand specialist care and therefore you will be responsible for overseeing this construction and that due care is carried out.

8. Cancellation policy

8.1 In the unfortunate event of cancellation, the hotel will withhold a minimum of £500.00. Between eight months and three months prior, you will be subject to a 50% charge of the total balance. Between three months and one month prior you will be responsible and accountable for 75% of the total balance, and within one calendar month prior to the function you are responsible and accountable for 100% of the total balance. We reserve the right to pass outstanding debt onto a management company to recover funds if deemed necessary.

9. Security

9.1 Security deposits maybe added to your balance to cover the costs of any likelihood of damage caused to the premises. The duty manager reserves the right to withhold the deposit pending investigation from the General Manager of the hotel. The General Manager's decision is final. The deposit will be returned to you providing no damage has occurred, reimbursement may take up to 14 days in some cases. Security hired by yourself of any third party you appoint must hold a valid SIA badge.

9.2 You are invited to hire your own security to protect your guests. Please advise your point of contact if this is the case

10. Entertainment

10.1 The hotel offers its guests the benefit of a resident DJ that has independent public liability insurance. If you provide your own entertainment you are liable for a £65.00 fee towards the hotels entertainments license and your entertainer must provide the hotel with their companies Certificate of Insurance and PAT testing report of all electrical goods. Failure to comply will result in the entertainer being refused by management of the hotel to play to your guests.

11. Times

11.1 You should note that times stipulated in your letter of final arrangements are only a guideline. We cannot guarantee, however we will endeavor to try and keep to your itinerary.

12. Additional Information

12.1 Management reserves the right to close the night early if in the event of disruption, drug abuse, verbal or physical abuse of our staff. No financial reimbursement will be given if this is the case. You are responsible to insure the safety of your own guests and insure that no violence or aggression is caused to anyone. Bar staff reserve the right to refuse sale of intoxicating liquor to anyone whom appears intoxicated or under age. Beverages bought elsewhere being consumed on our premises will be confiscated and returned the following morning with our compliments. Recidivist guests may be asked to leave the premises.

12.2 You are responsible for making necessary appointments no later than six weeks prior to the function with a Duty Manager to discuss your final arrangements. Please note Preference packages are not available after November 30th 2017.

13. Social Media

13.1 The hotel actively uses Facebook and Twitter. It is highly likely that photographs of your decorations, yourselves and guests will be published using our social media.

14. Damages

14.1 The hotel reserves the right to charge the persons named in the contact for any damages that may occur during your function.
